Suit - O.S. 16/32. Bellary District Court -will of Bogum Muthisani - died intestate -sanction for defence requested -

One Bogum Muthasani, a prostitute by profession died intestate on 29.12.31 leaving behind her 3 houses and some moveables of the approximate value of Rs.3000 One Vallur Venkappa claims to succeed to this property as legatee under a will dated 29.12.31 said to have been left by the late Muthisani.

2. While the Tahsildar was engaged in conducting an enquiry, Vallur Venkappa filed an application to the District court for a probate of the said will. As the will was said to be not genuine, the Government Pleader was asked to oppose the application.

3. The Government Pleader entered a coveat and under the Succession Act, the original petition was converted into a plaint. The Suit was posted for written statement on 21.9.32 and the Government Pleader informs me that he has applied for an adjournment for two months.

4. I request the Board's sanction for the defence of the suit. A copy of the draft written statement prepared by the Government Pleader is enclosed for approval.

5. The Government Pleader suggests that it will be necessary to file an Interlocutory Application to safe-guard the properties from being wasted or alienated during the pendency of the suit. I will do so after receipt of the Board's sanction for the defence.

6. I am in the meanwhile taking action under B.S.O. No.197.

In the Court of the District Judge of Bellary

O.S.No. 16 of 1932.

Between

Valluru Venkappa — Plaintiff

and

Collector of Bellary — Defendant

Written statement on behalf of the Defendant under Order VIII Rule 1 C.P.C. read with Section 295 of the Indian Succession Act.

1. This defendant puts the plaintiff to strict proof of all the allegations not admitted herein.

2. This defendant challenges the genuineness of the will set up by the plaintiff and puts him to strict proof thereof.

3. This defendant urges that the late Murthi Sani was not in a fit state of mental condition on account of her illness during her last days and the will in question was concocted by the Plaintiff with the help of his friends the attestors.

4. This defendant disputes the correctness of the amount of assets of the late Murthi Sani as mentioned by the plaintiff.

5. This defendant estimates the value of such assets as more than Rs.3000/. The Plaintiff is in possession of all such assets and is liable to account for them to this Defendant.

6. The late Murthi Sani died intestate and without any heirs. Under Hindu Law her properties should escheat to the Government. Plaintiff has no ~~claim~~ claim whatever to them. This defendant is entitled to all the properties of late Murthi Sani of the value of Rs.3000 and odd.

7. Plaintiff's suit may be dismissed with costs.
